

About Zairilla Bacon

Zairilla Bacon, otherwise known as the "Bacon Bitch," is quickly becoming one of the biggest celebrity chefs, with her food receiving widespread recognition throughout the cannabis community as some of the most delicious and potent cooking in the country. She hails from Chicago, Illinois, with a family that disapproved of marijuana usage during her early adulthood. After successfully running her own catering business, Zairee Lee and Company, she took a leap of faith and moved to Las Vegas, Nevada. It was there that she began her journey in the cannabis industry, working for a dispensary as a delivery woman. She started experimenting with edibles, initially focusing on treats and later transitioning to southern-style comfort food, which eventually led her to create a unique brand of exotic cooking. In addition, Zairilla Bacon holds a prestigious Trichome Institute Certification in Cooking With Cannabis, further solidifying her expertise in infusing cannabis into culinary creations.

After learning how to synthesize cooking products such as cannabutter, cannabis olive oil, cannabis coconut oil, and more, she launched Z Bacon in 2015. This business serves high-quality medicated food, offering dishes that range from BBQ to seafood and everything in between. Zairilla's food is renowned for its ability to disguise the taste of THC while excelling in flavor and gourmet presentation. Although her food is meant to induce a high, she also strives to create a better world for people who need cannabis for medical purposes. Zairilla's belief that CBD could have extended her grandmother's life, who passed away in 1999, motivates her to promote the medical benefits of edibles to those who need it the most.

Since appearing on Viceland's Most Expensivest, the video of Z Bacon serving 2 Chainz, Tommy Chong, and Hannibal Buress has garnered over 10 million views, making it the highest-rated episode in the series. Since then, she has had the opportunity to cook for celebrities such as Method Man, Redman, Mike Tyson, Paul Wall, and many more. With a passionate goal and a star-studded clientele list, Zairilla Bacon is well on her way to spreading deliciously medicated food across the country.

THE Z EXPERIENCE RETREAT

Calling all Baconnators!
